
Oliver's sarcastic life.

Oliver has a normal life, a good job, a normal house, normal friends and a patient girlfriend named Sandra. But Oliver is a little different, he is not tolerant and he makes two-way jokes to describe something he does not like when talking to other people.

A few days ago, Oliver met with his former classmates, they saw after a long time. Everyone went to the meeting, when Oliver and Sandra arrived, every person was talking to someone, everyone looked happy, and that situation annoyed Oliver, he thought that when he would arrive everyone would greet him, Oliver is a bit egocentric, Sandra tried to calm him and tell him that the situation was normal because they had not seen each other in 10 years, but Oliver did not understand the reasons, and he assumed a sarcastic attitude.

Oliver talked to everyone, but when Oliver talked with Paul, he had the opportunity to be sarcastic, Oliver approached him with a malicious attitude, Oliver asked Paul about his life, Paul said that he was working as a janitor in a school, Paul said that he had two children And that his wife died 3 years ago and that another friend of the school insisted on attending the meeting, because Paul did not have much money for now, he was broke, Oliver immediately made a mocking comment, Oliver asked if Paul could fix his bathroom and he did not care the price, because he was trying to help an old friend, after mentioning that, Oliver laughed a lot. Pablo said he could not, because he is a janitor who maintains the security of the building where he works. But Oliver continued with his sarcasm, said he understood, but then he asked if maybe next week they could go to the casino to spend money on bets and drinks. That comment made Paul feel ashamed, Paul left the place and apologized.

Sandra watched the whole situation and watched Paul leave. Sandra was disappointed by Oliver's attitude, she called a taxi and left without saying anything to Oliver. Hours later, Oliver came home late, drunk and beaten. Sandra understood that Oliver had earned it for being so stupid and unfeeling with his words and attitude.
